JV Lady Tigers

The Holy Trinity Girls JV Basketball Team had a fantastic year! They finished their 2010-11 season as undefeated section champions with a record of 10-0. They also started off their season with 2nd place in the OLSH Tournament in November. The girls truly learned to love the game of basketball and enjoyed working together as a team.

In a heartbreaking 1st playoff game against St. Mary's, the girls almost tied it up with a 3 pointer at the buzzer. The final score was 25-22. The team played a great defensive game, but their shots just weren't falling for them. The JV girls team is now getting ready to play in two upcoming tournaments in March.

The team is made up of 14 girls: Annamarie Boburka, Nicole Cardillo, Meredith Flanagan, Brooke Gallagher, Caroline Jones, Madi Lapre, Rachael Leininger, Malaina Mathews, Jordynn Miskow, Katie Moody, Paris Morinville, Tara Richardson, Gabby Tarquinio and Jacqueline Zimmer. They are coached by Bill Leininger, Dave Jones and Adam Miskow.

Way to go JV Lady Tigers! You have made us very proud!

Father Daughter Valentine's Day Dance

Holy Trinity PTG sponsored their third annual Father Daughter Dance on Saturday, February 19th in the school cafeteria. The girls dressed up and had a special date with their dads that included dancing, refreshments and lots of fun!

Father Daughter dances have become increasingly popular as churches, schools, and organizations across the nation have begun sponsoring the dances to build the bridge of communication and respect between generations and to strengthen the special bond that exists between fathers and their daughters.

Holy Trinity's Father Daughter Dance was a huge success. Thank you to the PTG for sponsoring this wonderful event and to the generous volunteers who worked on all the details to make this year's Father Daughter Dance such a special night for the dads and their daughters!

Holy Trinity Girls Varsity Basketball Win First Round Playoff Game

The Holy Trinity Girls Varsity Basketball Team defeated St. Mary's of Glenshaw in the first round Diocesan playoff game. Jackie Mathews made a defensive steal to win the game with 5 seconds left in overtime, making the final score 37-35. We wish the girls and their coaches Roger Froats, Sean Evanovich and Alexandra Froats the best of luck as they move on to the next game, the quarterfinals, which takes place at St. Bede's, the East Pittsburgh section champion, next week.

The Love of the Game

Second and third grades girls and boys developmental basketball teams played St. Philips this past Saturday at Canevin High School. While score is not kept during the developmental games it is very exciting to watch with each game the improved skills and teamwork among the players. In developmental basketball the players aren't playing to win but rather to learn, understand and develop a love of the game.

Holy Trinity's Developmental Basketball program is lead by Coach Jack Hindes, who not only coaches our kids but cheers them on every step of the way. In Coach Hindes' program the kids not only learn the game of basketball but they learn teamwork, gain confidence in themselves, and improve coordination and agility – all while having a great time.
